Comcast File#: 456534

Your Honor,

Yesterday we were very surprised to receive a letter from Comcast stating that Zembezia Film, Ltd. V. Does 1-66, filed a federal lawsuit against us for, as they state, unauthorized uploading their movie through the internet. We are writing this letter to state that no one in my family had never done such a downloading, and that we had knew about the existence of such a movie only from yesterday's letter from Comcast. We believe that this is either mistake, or if not, then possibly could happen because our computer ID was somehow stolen and used by someone illegally.

We use wireless internet and live in the building surrounding by many big apartment complexes, parking lots, and a park. All this is in the close proximity to our building, so a computer hijacking could be possible. We are always cautious about such things, keep our passwords in secret and use updated anti-spyware protecting programs in our computer. We hoped that ours or computer identities are safe. We are very sorry if this still somehow did not work. We are planning to fortify our computer ID protection even more with the most updated programs immediately in hope that this will work better.

We ask your honor to dismiss this case as we did not do this downloading, as well, to the best of our knowledge, anything wrong that could lead to this downloading.

Thank you very much for your attention and understanding.

Sincerely,
A. Markhotok
